ONE

MOMENT

PLEASE

Gossip, we hear, is sifting about the community; in rehearsal halls and alleyways, at agency desks and in business offices. It hums along the telephone wires.

There's a change at KLEF!!! What does it mean??? "Well, I hear buzz buzz buzz."

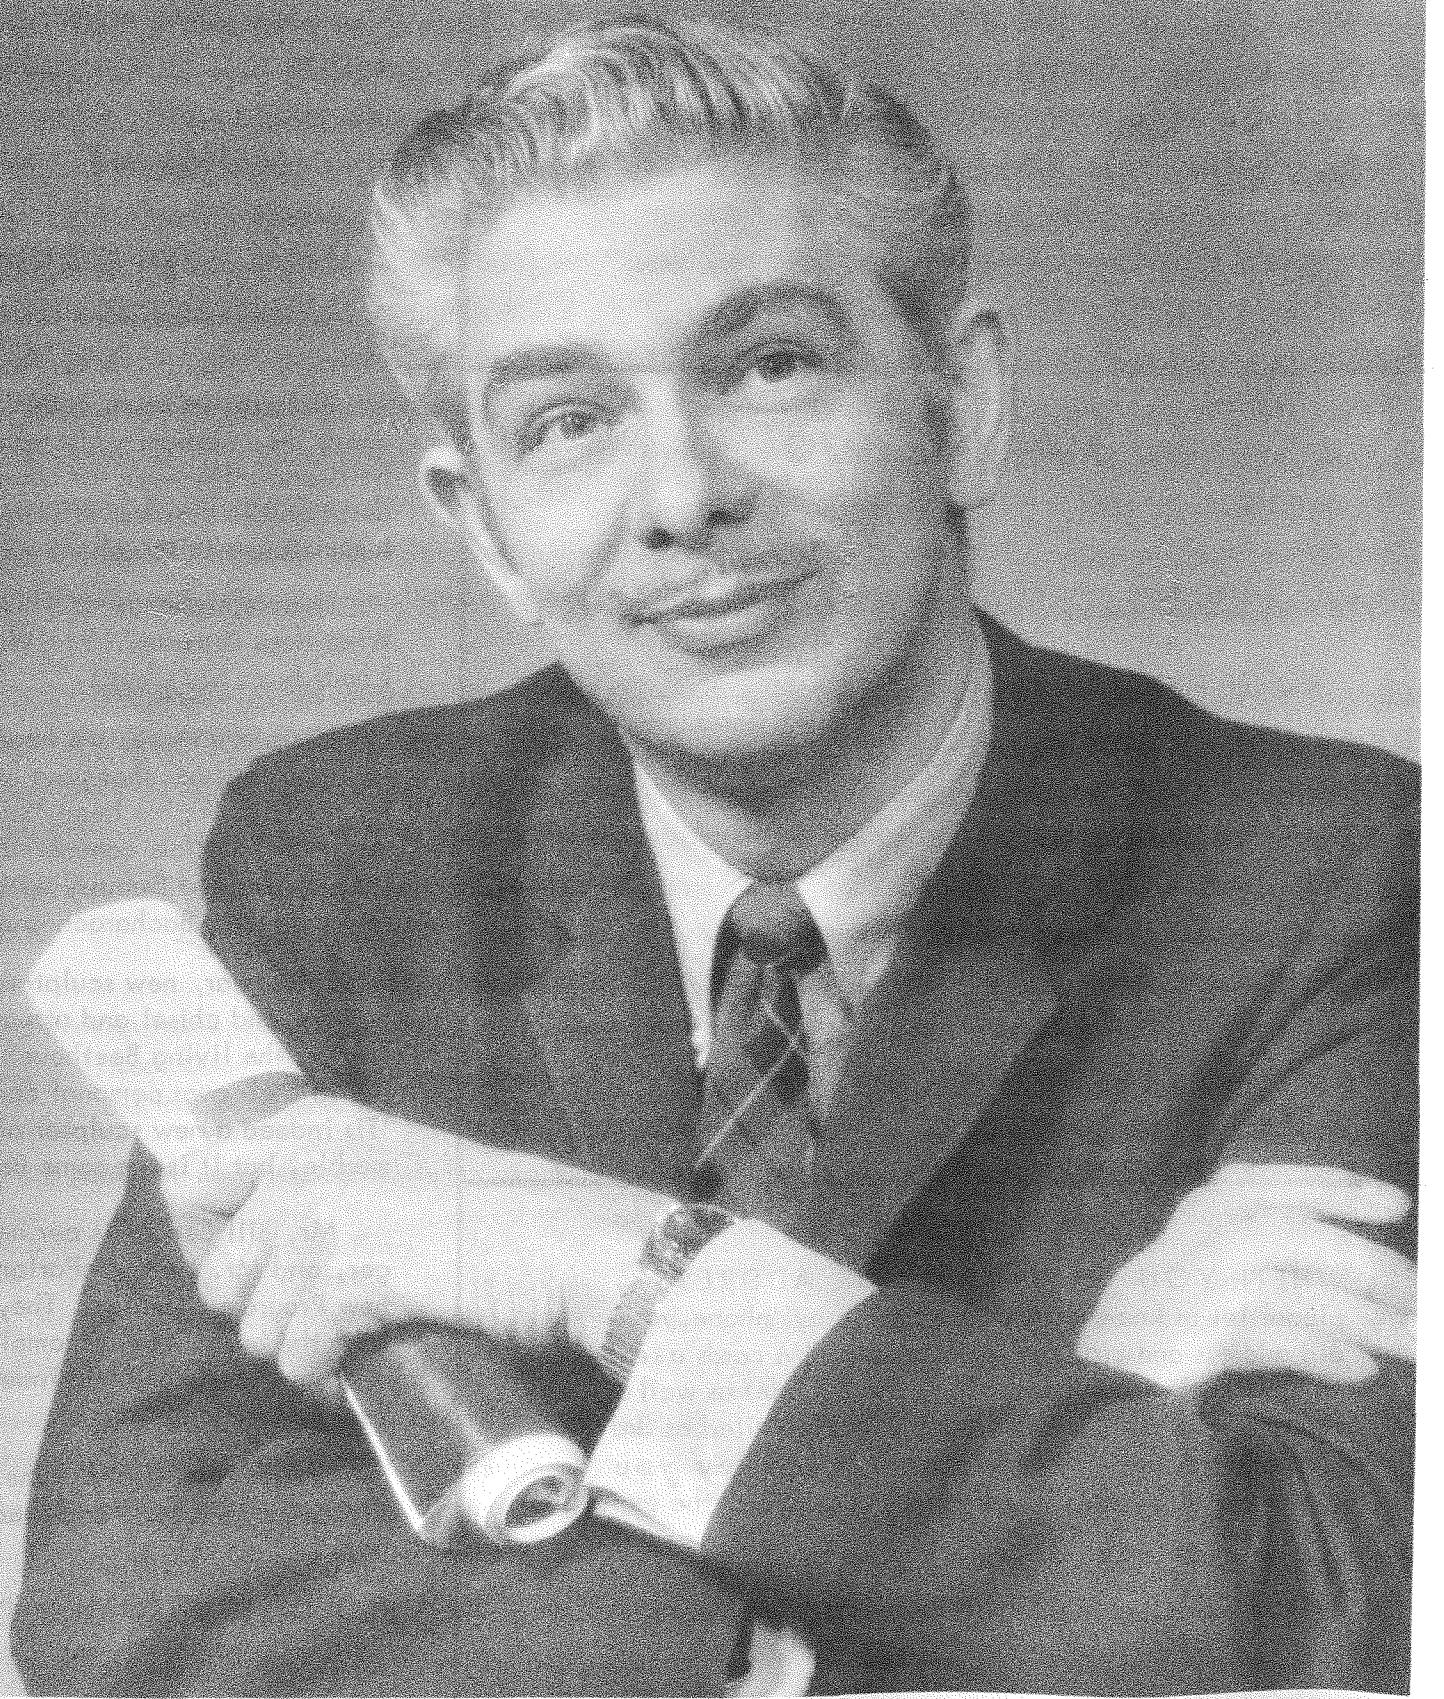

There are those, we hear, who'd like you to think that your home for the Classics has been "sold down the river" of crass commercialism--that Brahms and Debussy will be replaced with Bacharach and David.

Each year, new sculptors take up hammer and chisel and attempt to portray the living Beethoven according to their own personal concepts. 'Tis indeed a new sculptor and new marble, but it is the same Beethoven.

Mr. Bill Berkey is our new manager, and Mr. Herb McFarland is our new Program Director. They now take the baton from accomplished and able hands and continue with new dedication.

Turn off the gossip; tune up your FM-Stereo with joy and thanksgiving.

IT IS THE SAME BEETHOVEN!!!

HERB McFARLAND

Our new Program Director, Herb McFarland, is no stranger to KLEF listeners, having been the evening announcer since September, last year. His knowledge of and love for concert music are well known to the regulars.

Herb discovered Brahms, first, as he entered his teens, and almost immediately, to the dismay of his family, he traded in his cowboy guns and Saturday afternoon Western movie for home and the Metropolitan Opera Broadcasts. And if that weren't enough, comic books disappeared; their place was taken by 78 rpm recordings of symphonies and operas! A lifelong love affair with good music continues unabated today.

He started in broadcasting during college days in 1948, and at various stations throughout the Carolinas, he served as Music Director. It was his determination then, and is now, to bring good music to the public, having the strong conviction that exposure to it is tantamount to loving it.

For his home town in South Carolina, he founded a Music Playhouse, managed their small symphony orchestra, and, for a time, functioned as Music Critic for the daily newspaper. In television's infancy, he served as Program Director for a cable TV station.

After four years at U.S.C., and service in the Navy and Marine Corps, he went to New York, where he continued his education at New York University and the American Theatre Wing. He broadcast, he sang Opera and Musical Comedy, he directed, he acted. He rounded out many a twenty-four hour day in the studios of CBS radio on Madison Avenue with his friend, the late Bob Hall, who originated the American Airlines Music 'Til Dawn program, which just ended after some seventeen years.

Mr. McFarland is proud to count among his friends and acquaintances people from all walks of the music world. They have included his great boyhood hero, the late John Charles Thomas, and the late Giovanni Martinelli of the Metropolitan Opera. Herb and his wife still feel a sense of loss at the recent passing of their friends composer Vittorio Gianinni, and baritone John Brownlee of the Met and Manhattan School of Music, with whom Herb's wife worked for several years.

One day, returning to his studio apartment in New York City theatre days, Herb was whistling, as is his wont. It was a refrain from "The Saint of Bleeker Street". A fellow tenant of the building opened the door, came out, and stared at him in amazement. It is very likely the only time Gian Carlo Menotti has ever heard his music whistled in the streets of New York.

Among his conductor friends is Carl Bamberger, for whom he sang opera while in college, later renewing the acquaintance in New York City.

Mason Jones, Gil Johnson and Lou Rosenblatt, first chair men in the Philadelphia Orchestra, were pleased to find their old friend had the coffee pot on, when the Philadelphia visited Albuquerque a few years ago. In fact, wherever good music is, one is likely to find a friend of Herb McFarland's.

Herb came to Houston after six years at Albuquerque's concert station. His first taste of full-time concert programming came several years back in Albuquerque when the Program Director took off on a protracted vacation into the wilds of Old Mexico. At dinner with friends, Herb received a frantic call from the evening announcer. It seemed several weeks' programming had disappeared with the departure of the station's cleaning service. It was nowhere to be found. With Herb still functioning full time as Chief Announcer, his wife saw little of him for the next few weeks. But the station stayed on the air, the programming was done, and years of devotion to good music paid their dividends.

Thusly, Herb McFarland brings to Houston radio and the community an extensive involvement with concert music from any facet one cares to examine. As he brings his gaze onto the whole wheel, he has the advantage of personal participation in each spoke.

He has found the KLEF listeners sophisticated, astute, and highly responsive. It will be his challenge and his pleasure to serve them in this new capacity as Program Director.

February 13, 1970

Dear KLEF Listener:

After more than five years as K L E F program director, I recently submitted my resignation to Mr. Bill Berkey, the station's new general manager.

Such a decision was not easily made, for I have many friends among those of you in the K L E F audience. I have never met most of you, but I do feel a personal acquaintance which binds us together. Several of my most treasured acquaintances go back much farther — to KRBE and to KTRH-FM.

Since almost a dozen years have been spent in programming classical music for Houston, closing the door on this phase of my life is extremely difficult. It has been my good fortune to have had in my possession that which many people seek and few find: happiness.

My years at K L E F have been particularly prized. I retain only the warmest of feelings for all station personnel and especially for Ron Schmidt, K L E F's former general manager.

Soon after my decision had been made to leave K L E F, Mr. Joe Brown of Home Entertainment, Incorporated, offered me a position which was impossible to ignore. For at Home Entertainment I will be close to that which I love most: music. And at the same time it will not be necessary to completely say goodbye to you. As most of you realize, Home Entertainment is a company of unquestioned integrity and I am most pleased that I can be a part of that organization. Should you ever need me for anything, do call. I will be of every possible assistance.

Yours truly,

Angel explores the wealth of America.

American Angel – a 4-album recording debut.
A kaleidoscope of brilliance. And Beauty.

RICHES FROM CHICAGO.

SFO-36035
Performances that mirror the excellences of both conductor and orchestra. A virtuoso interpretation for Bartók; a sonically rich all-out recording achievement for the five gypsy dances.

SFO-36034
Two ageless Russian sound pictures. Ozawa. The Chicago. Spectacular Angel sonics. This incredible tour-de-force of musicianship and engineering technique renders a triumphant Angel debut for conductor and orchestra.

AND FROM CLEVELAND

SFO-36033
Together at last . . . the "dean of Russian violinists," the magnificent Cleveland Orchestra, and the great Brahms Violin Concerto in D. Indisputably superb playing. Both performance and engineering rank second to none. A "must own" issue.

SFO-36032
A veritable "summit meeting" of giants in what now is the recording of the great Brahms Double. Absolutely stunning sonics showcase the immense virtuosity so extraordinarily displayed here. Don't miss it!
