DESCRIPTION

And the winner is.....

Erich Wolfgang Korngold for his musical score of "The Adventures of Robinhood".

The 1938 American Technicolor award winning swashbuckler film from Warner Bros. Pictures starring Erol Flynn.

Why is this an important award? Not only for Korngolds career but also 1938 was the first year that the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences presented an award for a musical score and not just to the actors, writers, directors, producers, and technicians. ...

CONDITION

This is a pre 1950 award. Overall in very good condition with all original pieces. The copper placard is patina'd. Behind the statue, the base marble has been broken and glued put back together and is not noticable from the front, neither is the slight tilt forward.

The placque itself appears to be in good condition with some discoloring to the metal under the word, Achievement. The placque does have a general overall patina to it.

Award stands 6.5" high x 5 15/16th" wide x 3.75" deep and weights approx. 3.6 pounds. ...
