

NUMBER 4

In the last of the 9th on April 29, Mejias hit the second pitch of Don McMahon out of the park to break a tie and beat the Braves, 3-2. McMahon is now glad to be on Roman's side.

NUMBERS 5, 6, 7

The May 6 doubleheader at Milwaukee was really a big day for Mejias. With the Braves leading by 2-0 in the opener, he hit a two-run homer off the great Warren Spahn to tie the score, but again the Colt .45s lost a tight 3-2 battle. In the nightcap they broke loose for a 9-1 victory, with Roman blasting two more for the distance and driving in five runs. For the day, the Colt gardener collected 5 for 9 and knocked home seven runs.

NUMBER 8

May 10: Mejias hit the first inside-Colt-Stadium homer, a first-inning blast that found the reaches of deep right center. It was one of only three hits off the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, who topped the .45s by 6-2.

NUMBER 9

The N.Y. Mets were leading the Colts by 1-0 until Roman's ninth homer tied things up on May 22. The .45s went on to record a 3-2 win, their third straight triumph over the New Yorkers this season.

NUMBER 10

First time at bat against his old team, May 25, Mejias hit a two-run blast to give the Colt .45s a 2-0 lead. It held up until the Pirates tied it in the 8th and finally downed Houston in the 13th. He also hit a triple.
